Alabama & Vicksburg Railroad
Collided at Chunky, Miss.

Meridian, Miss., Dec. 26.—In a rear-end collision on the Alabama & Vicksburg railroad at Chunky two men were killed, three others seriously injured and a third load of passengers badly shaken up.

The dead: Vance Lader, fireman; Peter Kenostay.

Injured: Engineer Tucker, ribs broken and badly cut otherwise; Fireman of freight train, badly bruised and cut, name not ascertained; Engineer Dave Coker, arms and breast bruised with other cuts.

The accident happened at Chunky, 15 miles west of this city. The passenger train had stopped to unload baggage when a freight train running close by crashed into the rear coach. Engineer Tucker, of the freight, and his fireman jumped before the crash, both being badly injured.

Engineer Dave Coker, of the passenger train, while in the cab of his engine attempting to coast steam, was buried under an avalanche of coal. Beyond being badly shaken up the rest of the passengers were not severely injured. Peter Kenostay, who gave his residence as Bay City, Mich., was caught in the crash and terribly mangled. He was tramping.

JUDGE MURRAY F. TULEY.

The Nestor of the Chicago Bench Died in the Penneyer Sanitarium.

Milwaukee, Dec. 26.—Judge Murray F. Tuley, of Chicago, died at the Penneyer sanitarium in Kenosha. He went to the sanitarium on October 31 suffering from nervous exhaustion caused by overwork and failed gradually until the end came.

Chicago, Dec. 26.—Judge Murray Floyd Tuley, the Nestor of the Chicago bench, whose death occurred in Wisconsin, was one of the most widely known jurists in the west. He was elected to the circuit bench of Cook county in 1879 and had served continually since that time. Judge Tuley had the record of fewer reversals of his decisions by the supreme court than any other circuit judge.

Judge Tuley was born in Louisville, Ky., in 1827. He was a veteran of the Mexican war, serving as first lieutenant of the Fifth Illinois Infantry and in 1849 served as attorney general of New Mexico. The body will be brought to Chicago for burial.

DEFENDED HIS MOTHER.

Joseph Pollock Struck His Father a Fatal Blow in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Dec. 26.—Defending his mother against her quarrelsome husband, Joseph Pollock, aged 22 years, of 138 West Cumberland street, struck his father in the face which resulted in his death. William Pollock, the husband, who had been drinking, was called to Christmas dinner by his wife. He became angry because his sleep had been disturbed and was in the act of striking his wife when the son stopped the blow. This interference enraged the husband, who struck the son and the latter retaliated by hitting his father. The elder Pollock fell backward and sustained a fracture of the skull by his head striking the kitchen stove. He died on the way to the hospital.

BIG FIRE IN NEW YORK.

Loss Estimated at Half a Million—
Five Firemen Were Injured.

New York, Dec. 26.—Five alarms, summoning 32 fire companies and the reserves from nine police precincts, were sent out for a blaze which completely gutted the six-story factory building at Nos. 102, 104, 106 Wooster street. Five firemen sustained injuries but were able to continue at work. No one was in the building when the fire started and its origin is unknown. After the fire was out, Fire Chief Croker stated the loss might run up to $500,000. There were about a dozen girls at work in an adjoining building when the fire started. All of them reached the street without difficulty.

BATTLE WITH GRIZZLY BEARS.

Simon B. Clark, a Pioneer of Nebraska,
Killed in Big Horn Country.

Omaha, Neb., Dec. 26.—The information reached this city that Simon B. Clark, of Omaha, one of the best-known pioneers of Nebraska, was recently killed in a battle with grizzly bears in the Big Horn country. The news was contained in a letter from a ranchman named Adams, who said Clark's horse came to his ranch December 21. Recognizing the animal, Adams followed the trail back five miles into the mountains where he found the badly mangled body of Clark at the mouth of a cave and beside it two dead grizzlies.

TOSSED BY ANGRY WAVES.

Louisville Men Spent Two Thrilling
Days and Nights at Sea.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 25.—Imprisoned in a small naphtha launch far out in the Gulf of Mexico, storm-tossed and near swamping a dozen times during two days and two nights and a portion of the next day, half starved and finally rescued when all hope had been abandoned, was the thrilling, awesome experience of five men prominent in Louisville social and business circles. They are Thaddeus W. Spindle, director of the Kentucky national bank; J. Brown Lewman, cashier of the First national bank; J. C. Dodd, Hughes Moore and John Thomas. Mr. Lewman returned to the city Sunday morning and told the story. The Louisville men were the guests of W. W. Fransworth, a retired lumber merchant and ship-builder of Scranton, Miss., and Capt. John Paul was in command of the naphtha launch "It." The other members of the party were so exhausted that they remained at the home of Capt. Fransworth to recuperate.

POSE AS PEDDLERS.

Detectives Are Getting Evidence Against Alleged "Blind Tigers."

Flemingsburg, Ky., Dec. 25.—Detectives from the Acme secret service, of Cincinnati, employed by the anti-saloon element here, have, after a few weeks' work as book agents and peddlers, secured evidence enough to issue 65 warrants against operators of alleged "blind tigers" here. Dr. H. C. Kehoe has been fined $100 on one charge and has 64 more against him. Detectives also made a raid on several gambling dens, finding therein some of Flemingsburg's most prominent men. The trial of all the cases will be held during the coming week. Arrests and developments have caused a pronounced sensation.

SALVATION ARMY KETTLE.

Filled with Coin it was Grabbed by a Thief in Lexington.

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 25.—While members of the Salvation army were engaged in the laudable enterprise of raising money to feed the poor of Lexington on Christmas, and while the captain and his assistants were singing and praying to the crowds of shoppers on Main street a sneak thief grabbed the large black kettle used for donations and made away with it. The miscreant was pursued by several officers and a crowd of angry citizens, and after a chase of two blocks he dropped the kettle and money in a vacant store room, where it was recovered. The thief made good his escape.

A BROKEN RAIL.

It Pierced the Engine Cab As the Train Turned Turtle.

Paris, Ky., Dec. 25.—The morning train from Lexington on the L. & N. was wrecked by the springing of rails and the engine and one coach entirely demolished. The train turned turtle and one rail passed through the engine cab. Engineer George Little and Fireman Wright were badly bruised, and Charles Dean, flagman, sustained a broken arm and shoulder. The train made such a plunge that the right of way was cleared without the use of a wrecking crew.

Was Playing Santa Claus.

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 25.—While playing Santa Claus and assisting his nephew, Miss Katherine Ramsey, in distributing his classmates at Johnson school, Charles W. Bean, the 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Bean, barely escaped burning to death. His false whiskers caught fire from a lighted candle on the Christmas tree, but, with the presence of mind of an older person, he had pulled the hose attachment from his face, and quickly extinguished the blaze. He was severely burned about the face and head.

Husband Freed, Wife Jailed.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 25.—To prevent the prosecution of Coleman Glynn, her husband, for whom she had a warrant issued charging disorderly conduct, Ollie Glynn swore in police court that she was not his wife, but his sister, Effie Glynn, Glynn was liberated and his wife was sentenced to serve six hours in jail and pay a fine of $3 for contempt of court.

Preparing for a Strike.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 25.—Typographical Union No. 10 agreed on a 10 per cent. assessment to be effective January 1, when it is expected 150 job printers will walk out, as the typographers will not grant their demand for a closed shop and eight-hour day.

A Post Office Looted.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 25.—Burglars looted a blacksmith shop at St. Matthews for tools with which to effect an entrance to the post office there. The ill of the office was robbed of between $30 and $50 in cash and stamps.

Over a High Bluff.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 25.—Dr. James P. Davis, aged 51, one of the most prominent physicians of Bardonia Junction, was found dead in a creek. His horse had walked over a high bluff into the creek.

MINIATURE OF HIS EXECUTION.A Novel Slot Machine Made By a Condemned Man.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 26.—Perhaps the most gruesome means ever employed to gather in a few shekles is that engineered by William Van Dalsen, who is under sentence to be hanged January 19 for the murder of Fanny Porter. Van Dalsen has for weeks been laboring with his pocket knife, shaping pieces of wood into a scaffold. Two weeks ago he completed his task and then it occurred to him that he had failed to make a trap door. He remedied the defect, and, to complete the job, made a dummy figure, attached it to the beam by a rope and arranged it so that the trap would open only when a nickel was dropped in a slot. Over the miniature scaffold Van Dalsen has placed a sign which reads: "Drop a nickel in the slot and see how it looks for a man to be hanged." The murderer thinks his handiwork a great joke and seems to enjoy the fact that nearly all the visitors to the jail put in nickels "just to see the trap sprung."

CHRISTMAS IN LOUISVILLE.

There Were Three Fatalities and a Number of Minor Accidents.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 26.—Three fatalities and an unusual number of minor accidents resulted from Louisville's noisy celebration of Christmas. Theresa Housman, an eight-year-old girl, was killed by George Doll, aged 12. The girl's death resulted from the unsuspected presence of a ball cartridge among a number of blanks which the Doll boy, a neighbor, was firing in a rifle. George Irving Harper, a boy 14 years old, met death in an unusual manner. While Harper was tamping a charge in a small cannon with a broomstick another boy exploded a firecracker over the touch hole, setting off the cannon. The broomstick was driven through Harper's neck, killing him instantly. Ella Barrett, a negro girl, was killed by a stray shot from the revolver of a negro, who was celebrating the day.

FOR A GIRL.

Brothers Fought in the Church and Wounded Each Other.

Owingsville, Ky., Dec. 26.—At Indian Fields, in Clarke county, a tragedy was enacted at the country church in which a young man fatally shot his brother in a quarrel over a young woman. The latter went to church with the brother of the man who claimed her attention and the latter followed. On entering he saw the couple and opened fire on the girl. He missed her but wounded his brother. The shooting stampeded the congregation. The wounded man left and returning with a gun shot his brother. Twenty-three shot were taken from the latter's body.

With a Bullet in Her Heart.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 26.—Theresa Housman, the 8-year-old daughter of Jacob Housman, was accidentally shot through the heart with a fobert rifle held by George Doll, the 12-year-old son of John Doll, 1252 Jacob avenue. Young Doll was returning from hunting, and when opposite the Housman home he accidentally discharged his rifle. The bullet entered the heart of the little girl, who ran around the house falling, dead just as she reached the back door.

Their Home Destroyed.

Newport, Ky., Dec. 26.—A house in the South Alexandria pike, owned by Adam Sprau and occupied by Walter Brown, a conductor on the South Bellevue line of the S. C. & C. street railway, was burned and practically all the contents destroyed. No insurance.

Santa Was Kind.

Covington, Ky., Dec. 26.—The salvation army supplied the poor of Covington and suburbs with baskets containing substantial dinners for five, also shoes and clothing. The little ones were given an entertainment and a Christmas tree at the hall.

Three Men Killed.

London, Ky., Dec. 26.—The news reached here of the killing of a deputy sheriff and two other prominent men in Leslie county. At Big Fork, 20 miles from Hyden, in Leslie county, a large crowd of men congregated at an old-time shooting match.

A Shooting Affair.

Paducah, Ky., Dec. 26.—In a battle royal between policemen and John Tice, a one-legged negro flagman for the Illinois Central, Patrolman James Clark was shot twice in the hip and Tice was riddled by scores of people with rifles.

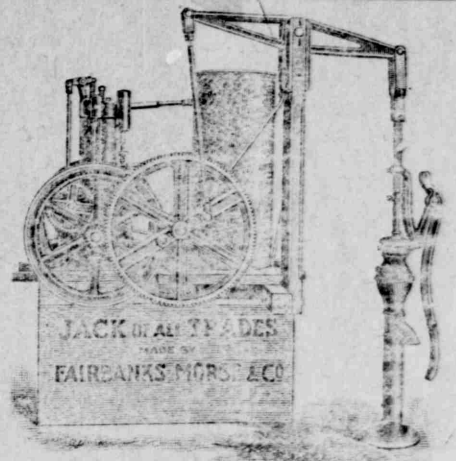

A Veteran's Fate.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 26.—Thomas Bibbs, a Spanish-American war veteran, lost his left hand and will probably lose both eyes by the explosion of a giant firecracker in an improvised cannon while celebrating Christmas.

Attorney Curtis Dead.

Walton, Ky., Dec. 26.—Newman Curtis, aged 75, a prominent attorney, died suddenly here at the residence of Jas. Cross, of heart failure. Dr. Menefee was called, but Curtis was beyond medical aid.

King Haakon has promised the Norwegians that he will rule them according to their wishes. Evidently all Haakon wants out of it is the salary.

Sun Will Be Cold.

Sir Oliver Lodge, the great scientist, declares that one of the recent sun spots observed in the solar eclipse was so large that the earth could be dropped into the cavity with a clear space of 1,000 miles all around it. The sun
shrinks very slowly, adds Sir Oliver, and Lord Kelvin has calculated that in 20-000,000 years it would be incapable of warming the earth.
